Get back to the basics as we explore the ways we can apply Leopold's tools to manage the diverse habitats across the state of North Carolina.

This year's meeting features:

- Keynote address by Dr. Richard Lancia
- Field Trip to Caswell Gamelands
- “Boots on the Ground” Presentations
- Two Socials
- Plenty of networking time
- Basketball & Disc Golf available
- Fishing (if the lake's not frozen)

Providing annual meetings with great programs is only possible through the continued participation and support of our members. We look forward to your attendance and valuable contributions at the 2012 meeting!
